

2017 Community Meeting Recap for Miles City

This document is a summary of the 2017 CEDS community meetings. These meetings were designed to discuss local findings and incorporate them into a five-year CEDS document created by SEMDC, and to get community feedback as to what the current state of the community is, how things have changed from last year, and what projects are priorities to be completed for the following year(s).

This year was especially important to host a community meeting because of the impacts from the decline in natural resource development has had on the community. There will be many impacts on communities in southeastern Montana, and the goal is to maximize positive impacts and mitigate negative ones. The decrease in Bakken activity over the last two years as well as the impending threat to coal have drawn some negative impacts recently. The more communities understand the impacts, proactively plan, and communicate within the community and region, the better the outcomes will be.

This document summarizes the thoughts, ideas, and projects discussed at the community meeting.
